Inspection Procedures

A physical exterior-only inspection of all new risks is conducted once coverage is bound. An appointment is only needed when the risk is located in a gated community (or otherwise has restricted access). Unless an appointment is necessary, the homeowner does not need to be present for the inspection.

In most cases, the inspection report is reviewed by PSIC within 3 weeks of the inception of coverage. Any issues relating to dwelling valuation or risk eligibility that are discovered during this review will be noted and notices will be sent to both the policyholder and the producer of record.

All renewal homeowners policies are inspected, with the inspection alternating between a tax and title report, and a physical exterior inspection to identify any changes to the risk that require attention.

Replacement Cost Estimation

PSIC has provided a replacement cost estimator to assist producers and policyholders with estimating appropriate dwelling values when purchasing a homeowners' policy. The estimator is embedded in PSIC's online quoting facility. The estimate produced is based on the county in which the risk is located, the size of the home's living area, and the presence of various ancillary structures. The estimated value produced by using the formula is the minimum value PSIC will accept.

Please be aware that PSIC's replacement cost estimator is intended as a general guide and not a substitute for a comprehensive review and a professional valuation of the proposed risk, including all interior and exterior features. It is important to base the valuation of the dwelling on a competent evaluation of the risk.

Since obtaining adequate insurance is ultimately the responsibility of the dwelling owner, higher values (up to the maximum available Coverage A limit) can be selected.

Common Underwriting Issues

The following issues identified during an inspection can lead to a cancellation, void, or termination of the policy, if the proper remedies are not undertaken. If the unacceptable condition is identified during the initial 60-day underwriting period, the policyholder has 25 days to correct the identified condition. If the unacceptable condition is identified after the initial 60-day underwriting period, the policyholder typically has up to 90 days prior to the expiration of the policy to correct the identified condition.

	Condition Example	Sample Notice	Possible Remedy
1	 Occupancy/ Vacancy	RISK UNACCEPTABLE — Vacant or unoccupied dwellings are prohibited.	Occupy the dwelling within the allotted timeframe referenced in the cancellation notice.
2	 Brush or Forested Area	RISK UNACCEPTABLE — Dwellings located in dense brush, forests, or any area with an increased fire hazard are prohibited.	Brush must be cleared a minimum of 500 feet on Homeowners, 1/4 mile on DP1 & 3 risks.
3	 Fuses	RISK UNACCEPTABLE — Dwelling with any portion of electrical on fuses unacceptable.	Convert 100% of dwelling electrical to a circuit breaker system.
4	 Trees Overhanging Roof	Inspection indicates trees overhang roof/dwelling.	Provide photos showing trees have been trimmed back from the roof.
5	 Extensive remodel- ing, Construction or Repair	Dwelling is not occupied or is currently undergoing construction prohibited by underwriting guidelines.	Complete construction within the allotted timeframe indicated on the cancellation notice.
6	 Debris	Inspection indicates debris in yard.	Provide photos showing that the debris has been cleared from the premises.

19. On this screen, you can also download and print the policy declarations page, fax the declarations page and print a credit card receipt, all using the same pull-down menu.
20. PSIC will print and mail the policy declarations page, policy form and all applicable agreements and endorsements directly to the insured. The producer and mortgagee (if applicable) will receive a copy of the declarations page only.
